Dear Dr. Wheelon:

Thank you very much for the outstanding lecture which you delivered to The National War College class, faculty and staff when we visited the Central Intelligence Agency on 14 October.

Your lecture was most stimulating and well received. In addition, the frank and sincere manner in which you answered questions from members of the class was greatly appreciated.

I wish to thank you again for your contribution in making our visit to the Central Intelligence Agency a complete success.

Sincerely yours,

FRANCIS H. GRISWOLD
